Which Gospel character am I in my relationship with others, humble sinner or judgmental Pharisee? How can I reach out in mercy to those spiritually sick and care for those physically afflicted?

Summer, a time for family, friends and prayer

We haven't officially begun Summer but like many people I have always seen Memorial Day as the unofficial beginning of Summer. I am currently on vacation visiting with family and friends. My sister, Cathy, lives in Missouri where the temperature and the humidity are usually both in the 90's during the summer. She often has told me she yearns for the cool summer nights of upstate New York. Well this year she decided to come east for a visit a little earlier than usual and she is certainly getting the cool nights of upstate New York, but she is also experiencing cool days as our early hot weather quickly disappeared. Cathy must have forgotten how unpredictable the weather can be here in June. I remember many a chilly morning when we were kids going to swimming lessons at the pool in Oneonta in June! My Mom used to tell us we couldn't go swimming until it was 70 degrees outside. If we obeyed her instructions we never would have had any swimming lessons at all! It rarely hit 70 degrees even by afternoon on many a June day, it certainly never was near that temperature in time for the early hour swim lessons in the outside city pool! Those memories have always made me yearn for hot weather even if it is humid. But whether the weather is hot or cold sunny or rainy, the summertime is a time to enjoy God's creation and thank God for family and friends. Below are some summertime prayers to help remind us to see each day as a blessing and enjoy the company of one another, and the wonders of God's creation. God bless you, Father Bill

A Summertime Prayer

Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer!

Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.

Thank You for the beauty I see all around me
and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.

Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family,
and for the more
casual pace of the summer season.

Draw me closer to You this summer.
Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am
or what I am doing.

Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.
As I enjoy Your creation, create in me
a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You.
Amen.

A Summer Prayer

Long warm days...

The pace of life slows...

A time for picnics and rest in the shade...

Lord, help me to rest awhile

in the cooling shade of your presence.

Slow down my restless heart and fill me
with gentle compassion for all your people.

Amen. - Author unknown

A Summer Blessing

May you walk with God
this summer

in whatever you do
wherever you go.

Walking with God means...

walking with honesty
and with courage,
walking with love
and respect

and concern for the feelings of others.

May you talk to God
this summer

and every day and
in every situation.

Talking with God means...

praying words of praise
for the beauty of creation,
saying prayers of thanks
for friends and good times,
asking God's help
in all your decisions,
expressing sorrow
when you have failed.

May you talk with God
Every day.

Amen.

As we look at the flag of our country, let us always remember its true meaning, for a flag without meaning is only a piece of cloth. The red of our flag stands for valor and bravery like that of those who fought to protect our freedoms. White signifies purity and innocence, Fathers' intent to secure the rights of all. Blue signifies vigilance, perseverance, and justice, as all are needed in any government to secure the blessings of God. And as our stars and stripes point to the stars of the heavens and the rays of the sun, let us never forget that our country must depend upon God's blessing and protection.
